VICE PRESIDENT COOLIDGE
 and Speaker Gillette—the presiding officer of the Senate and the presiding officer of the House—with Mrs. Coolidge and Mrs. Gillette, will be the guests of honor tonight at an original and delightful entertainment at the University Club. It isn't a dinner and it isn't a reception and it isn't a ball, but may perhaps best be dubbed a "Bay State Evening" for the members of the Massachusetts delegation in Congress and prominent Massachusetts folk who are residents of Washington have been asked to meet the two Massachusetts men who hold the most important positions in official life.

The party will begin at 8:30 o'clock and will be an impromptu program of speeches, with musical numbers by way of an "extra added attraction." George O'Connor and Charles Trowbridge Tittman are among the artists down for groups of songs. The program over a seated supper will be served for thirty, including the guests of honor and the Massachusetts delegation.

The hosts will outnumber the guests on this occasion, for the membership of the club is included in the former category. Claude N. Bennett, chairman of the entertainment committee, will preside.

Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge returned to Washington this morning, after making a hurried trip to New York to take part in the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the New York Commercial, at which the President and Mrs. Harding were the bright particular stars. Last evening, while the banquet, which was the culminating feature of the ceremonies, was being held at the Hotel Commodore, the ladies of the Presidential party and some other notables dined in the breakfast room nearby, with Mrs. Whitman, wife of the President of the New York Commercial, as hostess.

MRS. HENRY J. ALLEN
 Wife of the Governor of Kansas, who has been visiting in Washington.

Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Coolidge both attended this dinner, for which there were thirty guests. Other Washingtonians present were Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Mrs. Philip C. Knox, Mrs. William M. Calder, Mrs. Harry New and Mrs. C. E. Sawyer.

The Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge will be entertained at dinner on May 26, with Senator and Mrs. Francis E. Warren as hosts and on May 28 Mrs. Marshall Field will give a dinner in their honor.

The Spanish Ambassador and Mme. de Biano will entertain fourteen guests at dinner at the embassy tonight.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks will entertain fourteen guests at dinner to be given tonight by Dr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson. Dancing will follow.

The Rumanian Minister and Princess Bibesco, who gave a dinner last night in honor of the British Ambassador and Lady Geddes, had as guests the Polish Minister and Princess Lubomirska, Congressman and Mrs. John Jacob Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Atherton, Mrs. Richard Townsend, Senator Frederick Hale, Brig. Gen. Charles McCawley and John Joyce Broderick, commercial counselor of the British embassy.

SIAMSE MINSTER LEAVES
 The minister of Siam, Phya Prabha Karavongse, and his family will leave Thursday for New York whence they will sail on May 30 for England. After spending three weeks of the minister's leave of absence in England, they will journey to Siam by way of France and Italy.

TEA FOR COLONIAL DAMES.
 Mrs. Charles Gray Matthews, president of the Club of Colonial Dames, and her sister, Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett, will entertain at tea this afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock at Mrs. Blodgett's residence in Sixteenth street in honor of Mrs. Joseph Rucker Lamar, president of the Colonial Dames of America, and the members of the national council, who are attending the biennial conference of the Dames. Members of the Club of Colonial Dames, the District Society of Dames and Chapter No. 3 have been invited to meet the guests of honor.

Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Blodgett will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. Lamar, Mrs. W. W. Gordon, of Savannah, who is president of the Georgia Dames; Mrs. John M. Slayton and Mrs. Samuel M. Inman, of Atlanta, delegates from Georgia; Mrs. Ernest H. Pringle, president of the South Carolina Dames, and Mrs. Edward P. Porcher, sister of the hostesses.

Mrs. Truman Newberry, Mrs. James H. Campbell, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mrs. Rose Gouverneur Hoes, Mrs. Edward Kephart, Mrs. Albert Douglas, Mrs. Bradley Davidson and Miss Todd will preside in turn at the flower decked tea table, and the officers and members of the governing board of the Club of Colonial Dames will assist.

Mrs. Edwin S. Fuller was hostess at a luncheon of twelve covers today at Chevy Chase Club, entertaining in honor of Mrs. Edward P. Porcher, the guest of Mrs. Delos Blodgett.

Peonies formed the decorations for the table and the guests included, besides Mrs. Porcher and Mrs. Blodgett, Mrs. Charles B. Drake, Mrs. Harry Hawes, Mrs. James F. Wood, Mrs. William B. Shearer, of New York; Mrs. Ray Horton Arnold, of California; Mrs. Davenport White and Mrs. Theodore Noyes.

Senator and Mrs. Peter Goetz Gerry, who have been at Warwick, R. I., are now staying for a few days at the Plaza, New York.

MASK AND WIG SHOW.
 "Somebody's Lion," put on by the famous Mask and Wig Club of the University of Pennsylvania, was given last evening at the Belasco Theater before a brilliant and enthusiastic audience. And apparently General Pershing was the "lion." A guest in Senator and Mrs. Francis E. Warren's box, he was given three cheers and a tiger by the assembled cast of college boys. And when he went behind the scenes to speak to the cast, the audience took up the applause with great enthusiasm.

The Speaker and Mrs. Gillette and Justice and Mrs. Mahlon Pitney were also guests of Senator and Mrs. Warren. Across the way Justice and Mrs. Willis Van Denter entertained a box party, having among their guests Congressman and Mrs. Frank W. Mondell, and Colonel and Mrs. Chase. Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood was hostess to a group of young people including her niece, Miss Annette Graves, Miss Ailsa Mellon, Miss Caroline Story, Miss Anne Gordon, Miss Beatrice Beck, Mr. Sloan and Mr. Hoffman of New York.

In Mrs. Benjamin Warder's box were her son-in-law and daughter, Maj. and Mrs. Harry Leonard, Miss Louise Thorton and Mrs. Alan Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCauley, Comdr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Noyes made up another interesting box party and the Misses Veeder and Miss Green were in Mrs. R. R. Govin's box.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell were hosts of a group of young people, including their son, Robert Bell, Miss Delphine Heyl, and Miss Zilla McDougall. Others in the orchestra were Miss Laura Harlan, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Mrs. Robert Hinkley, Surg. Gen. and Mrs. Merritt W. Ireland, Col. and Mrs. Matthew Delaney, Mrs. William Barrett Ridgely, Mr. and Mrs. Thilman J. Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Egan, Mrs. Eleanore Maguire, Judge Martin Knapp, William S. Broughton, the Rev. Father Edward L. Buckley, George Bond Cochran, and Mahlon Janney.

The play over, the Pennsylvania alumni in the audience, standing in their places, joined with the entire cast in singing "Hail, Pennsylvania," this incident providing a moving climax to a delightful evening.

GARDEN PARTY.
 Between 250 and 300 guests motored out to Bradley Hills, Md., yesterday to attend the delightful garden party given by Mrs. E. H. Stock and Mrs. George E. Evans in compliment to Mrs. George E. Christian, Jr., wife of the Secretary to the President, The gardens of Stockholme, the country residence of Mr. and Mrs. Stock, were the scene of the party. The rain, threatening storm which frightened away some of the guests, the rain held off and the hostesses received under the great trees and flower-laden tables were laid in the garden nearby.

Mrs. Stock and Mrs. Evans received together, presenting their guests to Mrs. Christian. Mrs. Christian wore an original costume of jade green organdie, with a corsage of black lace. Mrs. Stock's gown was of flesh colored georgette embroidered in beads and built over pale green taffeta, and Mrs. Evans wore white chintilly lace made up over shell pink georgette. Either by design or happy accident, all three ladies wore black picture hats and all carried clusters of pink sweetpeas.

Among the guests present during the afternoon were the Chilean Ambassador and Mme. Mathieu, James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor; Senator and Mrs. Weller, Gen. and Mrs. Tassler, H. Bliss, of the War Dept., Mr. and Mrs. Gallinger, Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Drury and Mrs. Earl Godwin. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. D. R. Crissinger and Miss Crissinger, Mrs. John M. Evans, Mrs. Samuel J. Prescott, Miss Evelyn Prescott, Miss Mary Ailes and her guest, Miss Phoebe Wilson; Miss Remsburg, a niece of President Harding; Miss Phyllis Herman, Miss Herman, and Miss Mildred O'Neill.

MISS STILES MARRIED.
 Miss Ruth Fordyce Stiles, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Wardell Stiles, and Eads Johnson, of New York and New Orleans, were quietly married last evening at the apartment of the bride's parents in the Dresden. The ceremonies were very simple, owing to a recent death in the family, and a few close friends were present.

The wedding took place at 8 o'clock in the drawing room amid decorations of palms and spring flowers. The Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue wedding gown of white satin made on simple lines with a court train of silver cloth and a silver girdle. Rose point lace was used to form the veil, which outlined the square cut décolletage of the bodice. A collar of silver leaves held the veil in place. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Elizabeth Stiles, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and wore a gown of cream net, carrying an armful of pink roses.

Following their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home in New York, going later to New Orleans and dividing their time between the two places.

Col. Robert M. Thompson will take his household, The Everglades, to Annapolis on Saturday and will attend the graduation ceremonies at the Naval Academy and the festivities incident thereto. He will entertain the members of the graduating class aboard The Everglades.
